P
M204.6
L847
1902
Oct.
#2

THE LONDON CONFERENECE
OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS.

97, Farleigh Road,
Stoke Newington, N.

Dear Friend,

We take pleasure in announcing that on Sunday, October 5th, 1902, the London Semi-Annual Conferenoe of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints will be held in the Finsbury (formerly Clerkenwell) Town Hall, Rosebery Avenue, near "The Angel," Islington, services beginning at 10.30, 2.30, and 6.30.

President Francis M. Lyman, of Salt Lake City, Utah, now in charge of the European Mission, and other speakers from America, will address the meetings.

We direct your attention to the concert arranged for Saturday evening, October 4th, at 8 o'clock, in the above hall, at which several Utah musicians will appear, among them Miss Nannie Tout (a pupil of Signor Visetti), who recently won first honours in a vocal contest at the Royal College of Music. Mr. James Trethewey, violinist, and Mr. Cecil Montague, pianist, have also kindly consented to take part.

We cordially invite you and your friends to be present on both these occasions.

Sincerely yours,

HENRY H. BLOOD,

President of London Conference.